Accompanied on tabla by

Indranil Mallick

Date & time: Friday, 24th September 2010, at 18:30 hrs.

Venue: Embassy of India auditorium, 217 Chaussee de Vleurgat, 1050 Bruxelles.

Reservation: Obligatory by e-mail to info@brussels-sammelani.org before 22/09/2010. On a first-cum-first serve basis.

Shri Suddhashil Chatterjee is one of the most promising santoor exponent from India. He started his initial training of vocal music from his mother Minati Chatterjee and later from Pt. Samaresh Choudhury. Since 1995, Suddhashil has trained in Hindustani Instrumental music under the tutelage of Pt. Tarun Bhattacharya and Pt. Tezendra Narayan Majumdar. Finally, Suddhashil has been fortunate to have the blessings from none other than Padmavibhushan Pt. Shivkumar Sharma and currently he is under his auspicious tutelage.

Suddhashil's style of santoor playing is a combination of Gayaki Anga and Tantrakari Anga in a meditative mood. His mellifluous blending of melody and virtuosity has been well appreciated at prestigious concerts in India and Europe.
