The Embassy of India in Brussels is organizing a Concert of Choir Music by one of India’s most popular western choirs—the “Nagaland Singing Ambassadors” from the State of Nagaland in India —at 7 PM on Friday, November 7, 2014 at Église Notre-Dame du Sablon, 1000 Brussels.

Nagaland Singing Ambassadors (NSA) is the performing wing of the Nagaland Conservatory of Music founded by Mr. LipokmarTzudir in 2010. The choir comprising of some of the best musical talents in India has performed in prominent concerts across the length and breadth of India and abroad since its inception.

In 2013, the Nagaland Singing Ambassadors was invited to perform in Norway where it mesmerized the packed audiences.
The choir has composed a gamut of repertoire in several musical genres ranging from classical to gospel and folk tunes to pop. With its wide musical diversity, the Nagaland Singing Ambassadors has been able to win the appreciation and applause of the large audiences and fans in and around the Indian state of Nagaland.

The leader of the group, Mr. Emmanuel de la Rosa, is a formidable pianist and conductor who trained in his native country, the Philippines, and later, in Graz Austria. Under Mr. Rosa’s leadership, the choir has further conquered the hearts of western music lovers not only in the North Eastern India, but also across India, especially in New Delhi. The group was invited to participate in the Closing Ceremony of the recently concluded North East Film Festival hosted by the Directorate of Film Festivals of India at the prestigious Siri Fort auditorium in New Delhi. The popular Open Magazine commented that “…the performance left Delhi audience struck – as much by wonder as by the infectious music.”

You are cordially invited along with your spouses/partners, relatives, colleagues and friends to the forthcoming Concert of Choir Music by the Nagaland Singing Ambassadors from India at 7 PM on November 7, 2014 at Église Notre-Dame du Sablon, 1000 Brussels.

Entry to the concert is free. Entry will be on first-come-first-serve basis. Please register for participating in the concert at dcm.office@indembassy.be
